

Session At Ottawa Brought To Close With Fitting Ceremony

Ottawa, Ont.—A vice-regal salute of 10 guns boomed out on Parliament Hill when the third session of the 17th parliament came to an end. Without the king and features of an evening, chief Justice P. C. Anglin of the Supreme Court of Canada, in the absence of Lord Bessborough, the governor-general, read the opening prayer from the throne which liberated members and senators from the official duties and closed the legislative mill. Galleries were crowded.

Officers of the army and navy, representatives of churches, crimson and gold braid, embellished the deep red walls of the senate chamber. Prime Minister R. B. Bennett, Hon. Arthur Meighen, government leader in the Upper House, and chief Justice Anglin, in added an old-world touch in their black and white robes.

Members of the commons in sombre black, gathered at the bar of the senate in orderly disorder. In low tones, the chief justice read the throne speech, first in English, then in French. It expressed the chief of the Imperial Commonwealth's desire to develop a power "which will be a national spirit, a national character, and a national destiny." The speech, which was read in English, was heralded by a new dawn of the "new dawn" of the commons, from beginning to end was couched in optimistic phrases.

The commons convened a few minutes before the time set for prorogation to listen to a statement by Hon. Charles H. Cahan, secretary of state, on war reparations. Three loud knocks on the door heralded the approach of the gentleman under the black rod, official intermediary between commons and commons of parliament. The state secretary, the chief justice and his court of officers trooped to the chamber. The guns boomed. The travelling detachment of the king, Louis d'Amboise, escorted the chief justice toward the commons and senators bowed and saluted and dashed for tax-cabs and trains. The session was over.

The Real Reason

Amelia Thayer Wanted To Demonstrate Capability Of Women

London, England.—The real reason Mrs. Amelia Thayer Putnam flew the Atlantic alone was to stop all those nasty things men say about women's airplane pilots and women automobile drivers.

The herself revealed this while enjoying the utmost an enthusiastic reception accorded by London to her as the first woman ever to make a solo flight across the Atlantic.

"When there is a traffic jam on Fifth Avenue, men always comment, 'Oh, it's a woman driving,'" Mrs. Putnam said.

"I have gone up in the air with a mechanic who didn't know his controls from an altimeter, and when I came down I heard people say he didn't know his controls from an altimeter."

"So I determined to show them. Outside of demonstrating that a woman can fly, I have nothing to demonstrate that I have added anything to the science of aviation or anything else."

Returning To England

Lord and Lady Byng Sailed, May 26

Montreal, Que.—After a leisurely journey in the hotel of Lord Byng of Vimy, former governor-general of Canada, sailed May 26 on the S.S. Montclair for England. He was accompanied by Lady Byng.

Fight In Prussian Diet

Political Passions Break Loose and German Members

Berlin, Germany.—Rising political passions in the new Prussian Diet broke out in hand-to-hand fighting between Nationalists and Communists with a violence unprecedented in the parliamentary history of Germany.

The legislative hall was wrecked and at least a dozen members, including neutrals, were injured. Deputy Jurgens, a leader of the Social Democrats, who took part in the fray, was carried unconscious to a hospital with one side of his face ripped open.

With fists, inkblots, chair legs and other missiles, the members fought their battle to the bitter and without police interference. General Karl Lutz, the member of Adolf Hitler's National Socialist Party, having declined the services of the police, was left to his own devices.

The trouble started after Hans Jurgens, a National Socialist, had been elected president of the diet and Ernst Wittenbach, a Social Democrat, had been elected vice-president.

Wittenbach, a Communist deputy, rose to a point of order and asked that the members be ejected from the hall. He was ejected. The members were ejected. The members were ejected.

The Communists were forced out of the hall during the battle, at the conclusion of which numerous deputies on each side were lying on the floor, bleeding profusely.

Three Communist deputies, Karsner, Kuntz, Anglohie, were arrested. The session was over.

DO-N Reaches Germany Safely After Trans-Atlantic Journey

Berlin, Germany.—The German flying boat, "DO-N," which flew from Halifax, N.S., to Berlin, completed its trans-Atlantic journey with a mad sport through storm areas over northern Germany, alighting at Luggen Lake on the outskirts of Berlin, without incident.

The trouble started after Hans Jurgens, a National Socialist, had been elected president of the diet and Ernst Wittenbach, a Social Democrat, had been elected vice-president.

WANTED-A THRONE!

All Countries Should Turn In Resignation To Union Isolation

Vancouver, B.C.—People of all countries should unite in resistance to union isolation and the restriction of international trade. James H. Parnell, former president of United States Steel Corporation and now a member of its directors, called for an address to the Vancouver Board of Trade, Inc. which has just returned from the Orient.

By reading further, Parnell's movements tending toward isolationism, "I am sure that the people of all countries should be aware of the fact that we have standard of living will not diminish."

"Canada and the Pacific" he declared, "is the most important of the world."

"Across, around and through this area there flows already vast currents of international trade. To the Antipodes, the Orient and the Indies. Progress in the matter of transportation and communication has lessened the time and distance between the people of this area at the same time it has fostered and expanded their acquaintance with one another. Each has gained in the knowledge of the needs of each other and consumer demand has increased."

"This demand is now temporarily suspended by causes beyond the power of this area of transportation and communication has lessened the time and distance between the people of this area at the same time it has fostered and expanded their acquaintance with one another. Each has gained in the knowledge of the needs of each other and consumer demand has increased."

Three Liberals Are To Be Taken Into Manitoba Cabinet

West More Hopeful

Facing Present Summer With Greater Optimism

Winnipeg, Man.—The Liberal Party in western Canada are facing the present summer with cheerfulness and optimism. The party is feeling more favorable than for several years."

"This was the observation of Grant Hall, senior vice-president of the Canadian Pacific Railway who returned from an inspection tour of the prairies.

"Practically ideal conditions prevail in the northern parts of Alberta and Saskatchewan," Mr. Hall stated. "Present indications are that the south area will show great improvement over last year. Grain has shown good germination and growth in all three prairie provinces."

"This year crop probably is the cheapest since 1913," Mr. Hall declared. "The farmer realized that he must cut his expenses to the bone to make profit. He has replaced much of his expensive machinery with horses and has worked harder himself."

"The western farmer has the right spirit," Mr. Hall continued. "He is a fool optimist, and he takes nothing for granted. He has the right spirit to recover from the drought and the determination to keep his hand to the plow. He may be a little bit of the backbone of the country."

The Call would like to have a correspondent in Gleng. Would some one send in the news once a week.

Good news. The swimming hole is full of water. Who will be the first one to try out the pool this year? A lot of the last year's bathing suits are moth eaten so there should be a good sale for these articles this year.

After reading the financial statement of the hockey club it is easy to see that it cost real money to run a first class hockey club.

Clear the other fellow. Don't allow your chickens or your dog to run around and scratch up the neighbor's garden or flower bed. Don't go driving or tramping over the boulevard of a citizen who has taken pains to have it present a good appearance. The beauty of a town is made up of individual beauty spots and everyone should take a pride in these lovely spots, even if they belong to some other citizen.

H. Dwell has returned from Kansas to look after his large farming interests here.

Father Dougan of Strathmore who is well known in Gleng has gone East to "The Islands" in order to be present at the ordination of his brother to the Priesthood, which took place Sunday May 22nd. Father Dougan will be absent for some time.

Charlie Clarke, Jr. son of Chas. Clarke of the High River Times is now editor of the Vaian Advocate. The best wishes of all the Alberta Publishers are extended to the new Editor, who will soon be as popular in the newspaper as his illustrious father.

Announcement to all licensees issuing the federal five cent bonus of wheat that the bonus expires on June 16, has been issued by the Board of Grain Commissioners for Canada. Any grower claiming bonus must deliver the wheat on or before June 15 to a licensed elevator, commission merchant track buyer or grain dealer.

Don't forget July 6th. This is the date of the Athletic Club's first annual sports day. It will be a hum dinger.

Cy McKay showed a flattering trend in the power of our lost ad, column announcing, "I lost my train of thought over on Gleng Street. Where you locate it?" Service is our motto so here goes. "Will the gentleman who was observed picking up Cy McKay's train of thought, return same to this office and no questions will be asked."

Men are never satisfied. When it's hot he wants it cold; and when it's cold he wants it hot. Always wanting what he not. Thus with the farmers of the Gleng district. For three years they wanted rain and didn't get it. Now this year they are getting the rain; and more rain, but no warm weather, now the general cry of the farmer is for warm weather. So far this year we haven't had a real warm day. In spite of the continual rain, the crops do not seem to be backward and what is about to happen rapidly. Warm, sunny weather would help though.

What happens to worn-out tires after despairing motorists have walked to wayside service stations for repairs once or twice? Apparently a lot of them are shipped abroad where the faded rubber runs up still more mileage—for people who walk, not ride! Every year, more than $1,000,000 worth of used tires are shipped from the United States to Mexico, China, Spain and Portugal to be converted into soles which peasants can buy for about three cents a pair.

NO PLACE FOR YOUTH

What are the new crop of student graduates from high schools and universities going to do? Where is there a job for them to do, a niche in which they might fit?

Those boys and girls have been extensively trained—costly to the taxpayers in general and to their parents in particular—and now they are ready to set out in life. And there is no place for them to go.

It is tragedy enough to see an adult without work. But the adult has knocked around for years and has seen the colors fade from his youthful rainbow. But here are young

After the other fellow. Don't allow your chickens or your dog to run around and scratch up the neighbor's garden or flower bed. Don't go driving or tramping over the boulevard of a citizen who has taken pains to have it present a good appearance. The beauty of a town is made up of individual beauty spots and everyone should take a pride in these lovely spots, even if they belong to some other citizen.

JOHN W. HOBBS.

In 1906, he married Katherine Hobbitt. They have one daughter. Entering the service of the Hobbs Manufacturing Company, Limited, in London, Ont., in 1898, he became manager of the Consolidated Plate Glass Company, Limited, Toronto, in 1901, and managing director in 1907. He is now the organization's president.

Other interests include directorships in the Lake of the Woods Milling Company, Limited; the Imperial Bank of Canada; the Continental Life Insurance Company; the Scottish Union Insurance Company; of Edinburgh, Scotland; and the Securities Holding Corporation.

His social interests are many and varied. He is an ardent devotee of fishing, golf and tennis and is a member of the York, National Hunt, and Ontario Jockey Clubs, Toronto. He also belongs to the Royal Canadian Yacht Club; the Canadian Mountain Trout Club; and the Canadian Golf Club. His Montreal clubs include the Mount Royal, Forest and Stream and Mount Irwin Golf Club.

boys and girls starting out under a bow of crops. Not for them the keen sweet joy of bright, adventurous sport! They are launched into a world suffering under the worst depression history has recorded. They see gloom and suffering, hardship, unemployment and privation on every side. The youth of today are unfortunate. They are deservingly of sympathy as any group of young people ever were.—Hanna Horvath.
